The garden is created in form of rectangle covered with lawn with clumps of plants accompanying by animals sculptures in the form of simple lines (made of flat bars).

The gravel path of the Animals garden is the path of shapes, leads the visitors through the letters of word "jeu" and shows the shapes of various animals hidden in this little garden.

It does not show the animals but only the approximate shape of them to allow the guests to guess what they present.

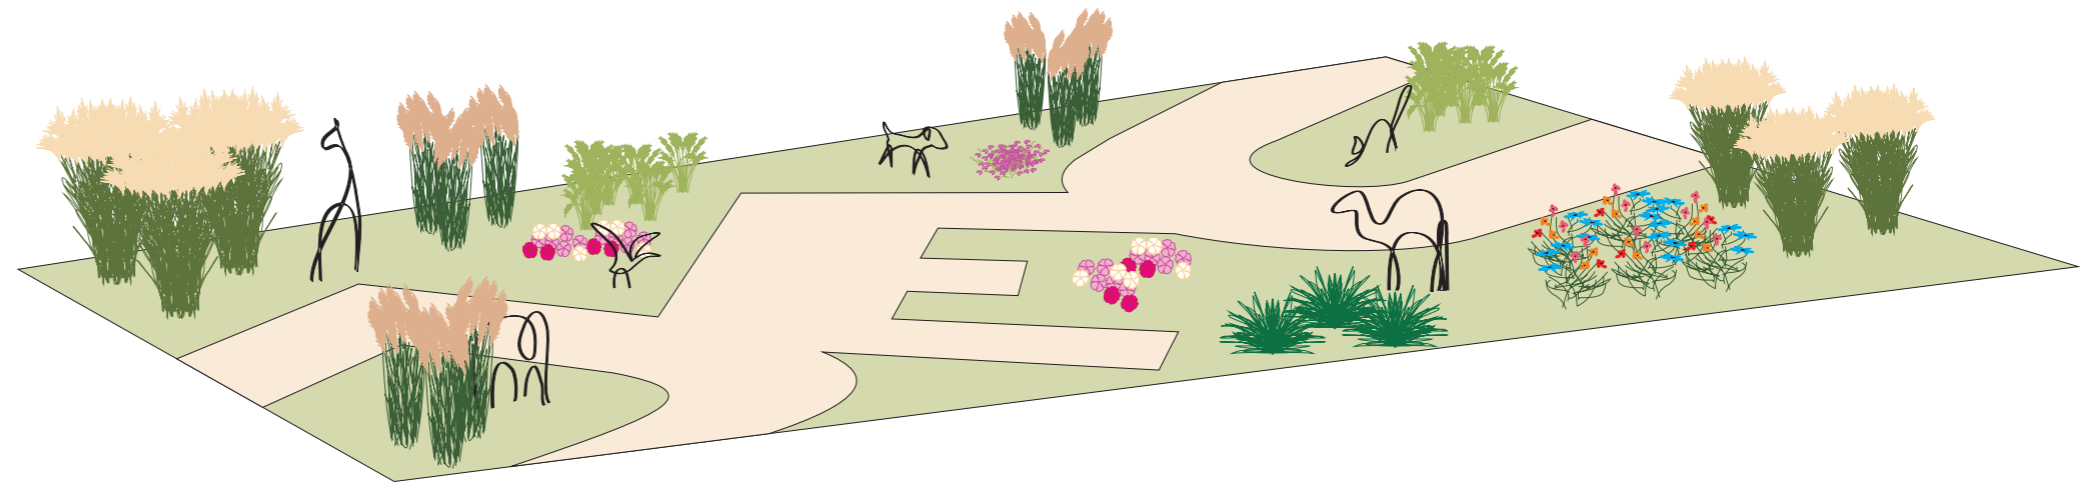

It encourages to use the imagination to guess what they present but also to try to image other animals, how they can be shaped in the same style.
